Important Guidelines for NOC Documents

When submitting a No Objection Certificate (NOC) for your driving license application in Qatar, make sure it meets the following official standards:

1. Typed Format Only: The entire document must be typed — handwritten or printed versions are not acceptable, except for the signature.
2. Original Document Required: Always submit the original copy. Photocopies or scanned versions may be rejected by the authorities.
3. Arabic Translation Needed: An official Arabic translation must be included, completed by a certified translator.
4. Translator's Stamp: The translated document must carry the official stamp of the certified translation office to be considered valid.
